SEEDS

If any of the AHS members happen to have some extra seeds Mr. O. McL Falkiner in Australia would be delighted to receive them. He has written asking for seeds but at the time none were available. This fall when you are hybridizing remember him. His address is: Chinook
144 Plateau Rd.
Avalon Beach, NSW
Australia.

-oOo-

WINTER SHOW AT TAMPA - DURING FLORIDA STATE FAIR

There were over 500 excellent entries in the Winter Show held at the Florida State Fair. Out of all the entries there were 30 or more with gold seal awards.

Mr. Ralph Philo of Ft. Myers took the Best Amateur Single with a Helen Champion; Mr. Herbert Gilliard of

(Next Page)

GETTING READY TO PLANT HIBISCUS?

We still got heaps-gallon size

300 Choice Varieties - price list available

No scratching around on your hands and knees.
We know what we have and where they are.

BARLING'S NURSERY

Rt. #3, Box 683 - Clarcona Rd.

Orlando, Florida

Wholesale Phone CYpress 3-4276 Retail

Distraught mama bear to papa bear: "This is positively my last year as den mother."

WINTER SHOW (Cont'd)

Orlando took the best amateur semi-double with an Early Marie; and Mr. Philo also took the best amateur double with a Pink Frost.

In the Commercial Section Trail Nursery of Ft. Myers took the best single with a Winn Doxsee; Polk Nursery of Winter Haven took the best semi-double with a Veronica; while Carver & Morgan Nursery took the best double with a Cabbage.

The best miniature was won by Mr. Walker Lyon of Maderia Beach with a San Toy; the best seedling was won by Barling's Nursery of Orlando.

The best amateur bloom of the show was Mr. Philo's Pink Frost and the best commercial bloom of the show was Carver & Morgan's Cabbage.

The sweepstakes awards were won by Mr. Philo in the amateur section and by Trail Nursery in the commercial section.

-oOo-

EVERGLADES NURSERY, Inc.

QUALITY PLANTS OUR SPECIALTY!

"Landscape Contractors"

South on McGregor Blvd.

Ft. Myers, Florida